Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments in the common law units of the British commonwealth, by Horace Emerson Read ... Cambridge, Mass., Harvard university press, 1936.

xiv, 371 p. 22^{cm}. (Half-title: Harvard studies in the conflict of laws, vol. 1.)

"Until now no one has systematically examined all three bodies of relevant case and legislative authority which have been developed in the dominions of Canada, Australia, and New Zealand with the object of weaving them with those of England and Ireland into what the writer, in partial analogy to the expression 'Anglo-American common law', ventures to term an 'Anglo-dominion common law' of foreign judgments."—p.
